5TH ANNUAL LA ACADEMIA DEL PUEBLO
LATINO/A AND LATIN AMERICAN STUDIES RESEARCH CONFERENCE

MARCHA
MOVIMIENTO
VOCES
CULTURA

El Movimiento 2.0: Youth, Identity, Empowerment

From Mambo to Hip Hop: A South Bronx Tale Film Screening
Where: 5045 Anthony Wayne Dr., 150 General Lectures
Wayne State University, Detroit, MI 48202
Followed by a panel discussion by Ozzie Rivera, Dez Hernandez, 5e Gallery and The Raiz Up Hip Hop Collective

SATURDAY
APRIL 26TH
9 A.M.-6:30 P.M.

Featured Authors:
PEN Beyond Margins Award-winning author, Lolita Hernández, reading from her new book of short fiction, Making Callaloo in Detroit.

Free Film Screening, conference registration and meals included.
For more information and to register, visit events.wayne.edu/rsvp/5thacademiadelpueblo or call 313-577-4378.

Presented by the Center for Latino/a and Latin American Studies with the support of the WSU Graduate School, the Leven Foundation, the Undergraduate Research Opportunities Program, AARP and El Salón de Nuestra Cultura.